

Pembrokeshire Orienteering Weekend - Sat 20 / Sun 21 May 2017...

Why not spend a few days in the beautiful Pembrokeshire National Park in SW Wales:

- Sat 20 May 17- Preseli Hills East (Nr Crymych) - Welsh League Level C event.
- Brown, Blue, Green, Light Green, Orange and Yellow Courses.
 - Fast open moorland, exposed rock formations, small area of plantation forest
 - Last used for orienteering in 2006
 - Thought to be the home of the Blue Stones of Stonehenge

- Sun 21 May 17 - Tenby Urban Race - UK Urban league and Welsh league event.
- 7 x Courses including an adult beginner course.
 - New area & new map for Urban orienteering
 - Fantastic beaches (on the map), cliff paths and old Castle town
 - Full range of UK urban league classes

There are various accommodation options available in the Tenby area; including Penally Camp for military personnel. Please support this event by entering early online (from 2 January); late entry fee from 1 April 2017. See the events page at www.BAOC.info for entry details (from 2 January 2017).

This event is hosted by BAOC on behalf of the Welsh Orienteering Association with volunteer assistance from Welsh club members.